FIRST CONSTITUTIONAL AMEND-JOINT AND CONCURRENT RESOLU-TION NO. 7 to repeal section 12 of article 2 of the constitution and adopt in lieu thereof a new section.

Be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Rep-That at the general election to be held on Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, A. D. 1999, that the following amendment to the constitution of the state of Missouri concerning prosecution for crime be submitted to the qualified voters of said state, to wit: Strike out the whole of section 12 of article 2 of the constitution of the state of Missouri, and adopt in lieu thereof a new section, to be known as section 12, article 2, of said constitution, and to be in words and figures as follows:

[Section 12.] No person shall be prosecuted criminally for felony or misdemeanor otherwise than by indictment or information, which shall be concurrent remedies, but this shall not be construed to apply to cases arising in the land or resentatives concurring therein:

to apply to cases arising in the land or naval forces or in the militia when in actual service in time of war or public

SECOND CONSTITUTIONAL AMEND-JOINT AND CONCURRENT RESOLU-TION submitting to the qualified voters of the state of Missouri an amendment to the constitution thereof concerning revenue and taxation. Be it Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring therein: That at the general election to be held on Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, A. D. 1900, the follow-ing amendment to the constitution of the state of Missouri, concerning revenue and state of Missouri, concerning revenue and taxation, shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said state, to wit:

Section 1. In addition to taxes authorized to be levied for county purposes under and by virtue of section eleven, article 10 of the constitution of this state, the county court in the several counties of this state not under township organization, and the township board of directors in the several counties under township organization, may in their discretion. tors in the several counties under township organization, may in their discretion, levy and collect a special tax not exceeding fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars valuation, to be used for road and bridge purposes, but for no other purpose whatever; and the power hereby given said county courts and township boards is declared to be a discretionary rown. This constitutional amendment power. This constitutional amendment shall not apply to the cities of St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph.

That at the general election to be held in this state on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1900, there shall be submitted for adoption to the qualified voters of the state, the following constitutional amendment, to Section 1. That article ten (10) of the constitution of the state of Missouri be and the same is hereby amended by add-constitution of the state of Missouri be and the same is hereby amended by adding thereto two (2) new sections, to be known as sections 22 and 23, which are in words and figures as follows:

Section 22. A mortgage, deed of trust, contract or other obligation by which a debt is secured, shall, for the purposes of assessment and taxation, be deemed and treated as an interest in the property affected thereby, except as to railroad and other quasi public corporations, for which provision has already been made by law; in case of debts so secured, the value of the property affected by such mortgage, deed of trust, contract or obligation, less the value of such security, shall be assessed and taxed to the owner of the property. In the manner hereinafter to be provided by law, and the value of such security shall be assessed and taxed to the owner thereof, in the county, city or other local subdivision in which the property affected thereby is situate. The taxes so levied shall be a lien upon the property and security, and may be paid by either party to such security; if paid by the owner of the security, the tax so levied upon the property affected thereby shall become a part of the debt so secured; if the owner of the property shall pay the tax so levied on such security, it shall constitute a of the debt so secured; if the owner of the property shall pay the tax so levied on such security, it shall constitute a payment thereon, and to the extent of such payment a full discharge thereof: Provided, that in all such cases the interest of the owner of the security, as well as that of the owner of the property affected by such mortgage, deed of trust, contract or obligation, shall be assessed on terms equally fair and just. If the note or other obligation secured, is entitled to a credit by payment made on the principal thereof, the assessable value of the owner of the security, upon the fact the owner of the security, upon the fact being made known to the assessor prior to the assessment, shall be diminished by the amount of such payment, and the assessable value of the owner of the land assessable value of the owner of the land or other property, correspondingly increased, the intent hereof being to place those interested in any way in such land or other property, on the plane of absolute equality as to taxation.

Section 23. Every contract hereafter made by which a debtor is obligated to pay any tax or assessment on money loaned, or on any mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien, shall, as to any interest specified therein and as to such tax or assessment, be null and void.
